COMMISSIONER UNDER SCRUTINY!

Every league has their commissioners, and most leagues appoint that man/woman to run their league. However this is not the case with Blood Bowl, commissioners are self appointed and run the leagues out of the “love of the game”. Hammer Bowl’s Commissioner Awesome is no different, the day to day working of a league are tough for a position that only pays annually. I had a chance to sit down with Commissioner Awesome and ask him a few questions about some wild accusations.

B. Haxter: “The first question I asked was in regards to the comments of the The ‘Politically Correct’ Bombers manager regarding their name change.

Commissioner Awesome: “I heard their press conference, and I understand their frustration. I had to make a decision but the fact is I received a lucrative bribe to mess with the bombers. Does that make me a ‘Tyranical Commissioner’? No, it makes me a ‘Tyranical Commissioner with a summer home!’

BH: “How do you respond to the accusation that you’re biased towards the Sylvannian Fangs?”

CA: “They’re my team sure, but I don’t interfere with their day to day operations, I just make the big decisions...and the small ones too. And maybe they get special treatment, but after all they ARE favorite team!”

BH: “But Commissioner it’s against the rules to play favorites...”

CA: “It is? Next Question.”

BH: “Rumor has it that the UFJ has been threatening to strike this season, based on the mistreatment of their players, how do you respond to this?”

CA: “It’s easy the United Federation of Journeymen needs to look at it like this: they are getting a face-time in this league, the pay is amazing, some of them are getting 70k for a single game! They need to look at the big picture, sure a couple have died, but our stars are getting killed just as often. Besides two of these players have been hired on full time, and 3 have made a over 200k playing for the New Ulthuan Patriots! Look at it like this, there are always going to be complaints, it’s my job to deal with them while running the league and I am doing a damn good job!”

GOBBO ON DA GREEN

Gobbo 'ere, to report about a home grown team. I am talkin' about da Hamilton Tiger-Rats. Dese guys are one of da newest teams to walk onto da pitch. Like, none of dese Skaven 'ave ever played Blood Bowl in dere lives! Some say dat when Henry Furriss was first given a ball in practice, he gave it to a young skaven spectator. Then asked his coach which way he was suppose to go for a "goal score thing". But dese boys are gettin' it, after losing in da first game of da season, dey 'ave tied dere last 2 games, and are only gettin' better. If you wanna see the Tiger-Rats, go see dem play in da Sewer Wynne Stadium! -

MIDAS' GOLDEN TOUCH

Four weeks into the season and I am already rich. Thank you Hammer Bowl Fans. Although I feel I could be richer should everyone bet more often, don't forget to place those bets! This week's game of the week will see the hottest team in the league Smack my Pitch Up traveling to the desert to face Wild Riders! This will be a bloody match! I've heard rumors that the Riders will have found their Thro-Ra by this game. If that is the case then they may have a chance, however Vali is tearing the league up so look for Smack my Pitch up to win by 4TD's! Don't believe me? Then bet on the Riders.

OBITUARIES

Shiranwe – New Ulthuan Patriots: Died while trying to hold the line from an angry ogre. Her bones were ground into soup after the game!

Journeyman – New Ulthuan Patriots: When asked for comment the New Ulthuan Patriots deputy of communications handed us a well worn sign with the words 'It's a Journeyman...we have more'.

Frank – Van Helsing's Voodoo: Died Thursday August 22nd. He was holding the line when Morg n Thorg tore the bolts from his neck, and separated his arms from his Torso.

Kaspar – Sylvania Fangs: Died Saturday August 24th. This Vampire tried to gaze a dwarven Death roller, after that failed attempt he was used as a blood pancake for the new recruit.

John Stalemos – Unnecessary Explosions: Died Wednesday August 28th. Was the cruel victim of a game of 'pop goes the weasel' with a troll from the Smackers. His Family has not been informed so please keep this a secret.

Azrael – Avalorn Angels: Died Wednesday August 28th. Played the game with all his heart, unfortunately Konrad from the Sylvania Fangs felt that heart would make a good mid game snack.

Flea Webb – Hamilton Tiger-Rats: His coach didn't like him; his family of 300 didn't like him. So this obituary holds no merit, he was a low down dirty rat.

Olaf the Stout – Smack My Pitch Up: Died Saturday August 31st. He played the game with a frozen heart, a chip on his claws and died when a Tomb Guardian Pulled the Ice cold heart from his Chest. Smack My Pitch Up is currently honoring him as a throw rug in their locker room.

Berren – Bogenhafen Brute Squad: Died Saturday August 31st. He played in 4 games this season, he had no stats to report, He died by the hands of an Angry Ramtut III. The details are to grotesque for us to put in a family friendly paper.
